McAllister Recreation Center to host Spring Celebration

LAFAYETTE, IN – April 20, 2022 – McAllister Recreation Center will be hosting its annual Spring Celebration from 11:00am-2:00pm on Saturday, April 23, 2022. The event will take place at McAllister Recreation Center and feature egg hunts, games, crafts, and fun activities for the whole family. Food trucks will be on site during the event.

“We are really excited to be able to bring back this annual event after a COVID-19 hiatus,” said McAllister Recreation Center Manager Chad Aldridge. “It’s something we really look forward to each year. In addition to the egg hunts, attendees will also enjoy special appearances by Melvin the McAllister bunny! It’s going to be a lot of fun for our community.”

Spring Celebration is free and open to the public. Egg hunts will start at noon and be organized by age groups: children ages 0-3 years at noon, children ages 4-6 years at 12:30pm, and children ages 7 and up at 1:00pm.
